Chapter 1

GREEN COLOR

In one early morning, James just left the bathroom, and went to the kitchen, but when he came closer to the fridge he suddenly remembered that he had run out of green peas. He was ready to run to the store, he got dressed and when he was already two meters from the door, "Ding-Dong" (the doorbell rang), he quickly opened the door, and the one who was behind the door jumped and screamed in unexpectedness.

"Aaah ... Whew!!! ... You open the door so quickly!" - It was his neighbor Roger.

"Roger? What's up?" - asked James.

"Well ... Here's the thing, do you have a Green Paint?"

"Green Paint?"

"Yes, preferably Food Coloring".

"Yeah sure, I have it, wait a minute." - said James and went to the kitchen, and finding food coloring, returned to the neighbor and asked:

"Why do you need green food coloring? if it's not a secret".

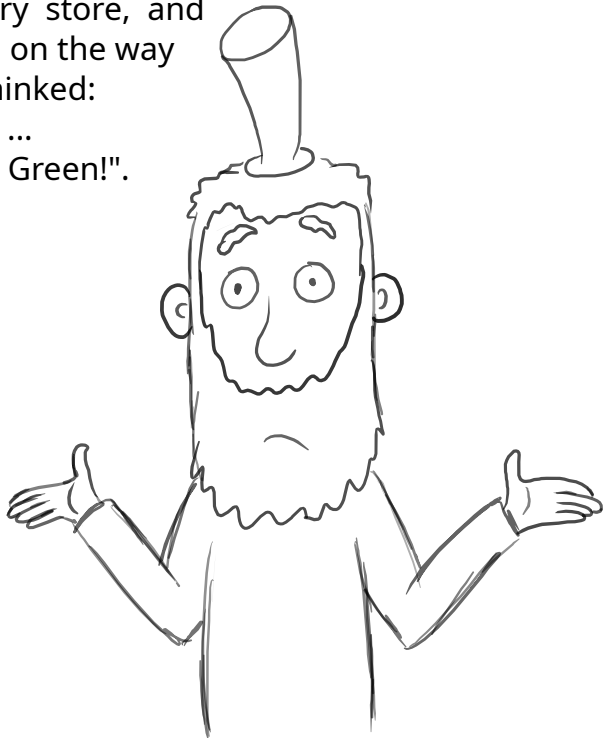

"It's a secret, but as you my friend I'll tell you" - Roger went closer to him and whispered - "I'M GOING TO CATCH A FROGS".

"Frogs? So ... Why do you need green paint?" - Asked James confused.

"I wanna tell you but I don't have time, I will tell you later, thanks, bye!!!" - And Roger left with a glowing face and big smile. James stood in the doorway and could not understand why he needed the green coloring.

Few seconds later James remembered that he wanted to go to the grocery store, and he went out. And on the way to the store he thought:

"Hmm ... strange ... the Peas are also Green!".

Chapter 2

NEIGHBOR'S STORY

Returning after a successful trip to the store, James quickly made himself breakfast, mashed potatoes with green peas and steak, and started eating his breakfast.

Few minutes later, breakfast was finished, and when he threw the last pea into his mouth, a doorbell rang out slowly and loudly: "Di-i-i-i-ing-Do-o-o-o-ong". He stood up, walked to the door, opened it and jumped back with "Aaahh, GULP!" - then a few seconds later - "Whew! Roger it's you, What's happened to you?".

Roger stood on the threshold, all wet and with green sour phiz.

Roger breathed out with disappointment and sadness and said: "It didn't work out for me, I really wanted to try frog legs, they said it's tease like a chicken, but everything went wrong!".

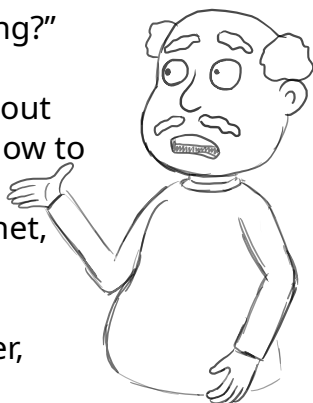

"Come on in ... and tell me everything!" - said James.

James offered a towel, and they went into the living room, and Roger began his story:

"You see, I watched a tv-show where a french cook showed a dish with frog legs, and he praised it so much that I thought of cooking it myself."

"And why do you need a green coloring?"

"Wait, don't rush it, so ... I thought about catching the frogs, but I don't know how to catch them, they are always running away from me, so I went to the Internet, and saw one 'SMART GUY', and I got inspired ... I took green coloring from you, painted my face, went to the river, and started pretending to be a frog (as he shows in the video). I jumped up like a frog, pretended to be dead, but they always ran away from me. I don't understand what I did wrong?"

"WOW, you're so naive, you don't have to believe everything you see on the internet. If you want, I can teach you how to catch frogs properly"

"You know how to do that?" - asked James with a smile.

"Of course, I remember now I caught frogs with my friends, when I was a kid."

"Oh WOW, thanks."

Chapter 3

HUNTING

The next morning, very early, two friends met each other not far from the river. Roger took everything in his backpack that he could, nets, fishing rods, a hunting suit, and even chewing gum, and many other accessories. James took with him only a bag, a rifle, and a large long stick.

"Well ... I'll show you how to catch frogs" - said James.

"Why do you need this large long stick?" - ask Roger.

"I need to hang the bag on it, because when you catch frogs, you need your both hands to be free". - said James with a smile.

"Oh yeah, that makes sense..."
- said Roger, and looked at his big rifle.

So ... they went to the shore and started looking and searching for the frogs.

They walked a little along the shore, and saw several frogs. And James said in a whisper:

"Okay, now watch and learn, in first take that rifle and go around the frogs from behind"

"What? ... I don't know how to use a rifle." - said Roger in shock.

"Don't worry it's a blank cartridge, they are without bullets, you just have to go around them from behind and shoot at the top, they will jump from you to me, and I will show you how to catch them."

"Oh okay, so how do I need to shoo..." - and he accidentally released the trigger.

BA-A-A-ANG!!!

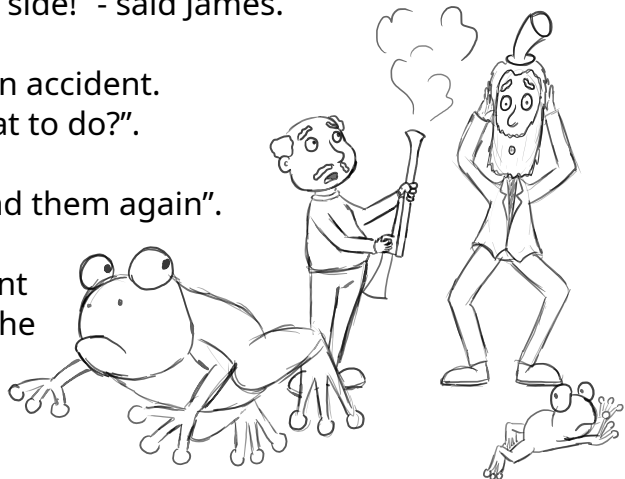

And all frogs jumped away from them.

"What are you doing? You need to shoot from the other side!" - said James.

"Sorry, it was an accident.
Oh ... now what to do?"

"Well ... let's find them again".

And they went further along the shore, and as soon as they found three frogs, James silently pointed at them, and then gestured that he needed to Roger go around them, Roger understood, walked around, and looked at James. James at this time took a catching pose, and signaled to Roger, and ... BA-A-A-ANG!

James was a little confused by such a boom, but when he saw that three frogs were jumping in his direction, he quickly start rushed at them and jumped, but missed a little bit, and landed face-first in the sand right next to the frightened frogs, the frogs began to run away from him, but he gets up quickly and start chasing the frog. Roger saw that James missed, ran to help, and they jumped on the one frog, and as you guessed, they crashed their heads against each other. Three frogs, shocked, jumped towards the water. James and Roger stood up, with bumps on their foreheads, and saw that they frogs jumped into the water, and they jumped after them. They were away from them, then they were behind them, they tried to catch them, water splashed in different directions, they are swimming in the water until James shouted:

"I CA-A-AUGHT IT!!!"

Roger stopped swimming around, and saw that James caught the frog.

Chapter 4

EPILOGUE

"WOW! James, you caught the frog. Now from that moment I will catch frogs using only this method, that's awesome!" - said Roger with a big smile on his face.

"Here, take it" - said James, and gave him the frog.

Roger took the frog, looked at it, then on James, then again on frog and again on James:

"Listen, I don't know why ... but for some reason I felt sorry for this green little creature, I don't wanna kill it anymore".

"Ye-e-e-eah ... " - agreed James,
"When my friends and I caught them, we didn't eat them or kill them, we put bows on them and gave them to the girls, yeah ... there was a time .... "

They released the little creature, and the frog, all frightened, galloped away from them.

And James and Roger, wet, but happy, went home. And Roger said:

"James, I think it will be better to buy a big turkey and bake it, it will be delicious, and bigger."

"You right Roger, you right!".
